THAT the Board of Education in accordance with state law, adopt the CSDE approved version of the West Hartford Teacher Evaluation and Development Pilot Program and the Administrator Evaluation and Development Pilot Program with amendments

Mr. Schmitt provided a brief overview and introduced Maureen Lantner, Natalie Simpson, Rick Ledwith and Nancy DePalma, the presenting panel members. Dr. List provided background on the pilot programs and clarified that evaluation of teachers and administrators has always occurred. She reviewed the requirements and the district's application and subsequent denial by the State for the extension waiver. Dr. List emphasized the increased stress experienced by the teachers to adhere to the implementation of the mandates and appealed for understanding of this additional pressure from Board members.

Mrs. Simpson and Dr. Lantner summarized the teacher evaluation and administrator evaluation categories and amendments. The rapid change of pace and reasons behind the deadline extension waiver were explained and the TalentEd component, training and support, and on-going professional development were described. The next steps for both evaluation programs including revision review by the Board and submission to the State were reviewed. All were available to address the questions and concerns of the Board.

Board members sought clarification on the numbers of teachers and administrators and the caseloads of evaluators. The process of rolling-out the message of the review process for parents, students and community participation was discussed and correlation between student performance and teacher evaluation was clarified. The past practices of evaluation and the existence of a strong evaluation system and accommodating the new challenges and stressors of competing priorities was recognized. The high expectations set by teachers to embrace and commit to, rather than simply comply with the new challenges and manage the pace of the implementation of the changes and understand its value for future use were acknowledged.

The motion passed unanimously.

Dr. List commended the recognition received by the school nurses for their efforts in ensuring compliance with immunizations to protect the health of the students and community. Dr. List extended Holiday wishes for a safe and enjoyable break for families and staff and announced that due to the weather the scheduled presentation by Perkins Eastman Architects was postponed until January 7, 2014.

Mr. Putterman offered scheduling clarification for the January 7, 2014 Board Workshop and Charter Oak Presentation.

Dr. List provided a recap of the State Department of Education's (CSDE) No Child Left Behind accountability system and the waiver requirements and student performance. She suggested reflection on the framework of the Mission Statement and its emphasis on whole student development and achievement. Mr. Chip Ward announced an end of an era with the Adequate Yearly Progress indicator for the CMT and CAPT and provided an introduction to the new School Performance Index (SPI) accountability system. The new State goals and classifications were explained. Mr. Chip Ward, Dr. Nancy DePalma and Mr. Paul Vicinus were available to address the questions and concerns of the Board.
